

MONARCH
MEMORIES

Here men from the planet Earth first set foot upon the moon.

WE CAME IN PEACE
FOR ALL MANKIND.

July 20, 1969.

MISSION CONTROL: You're cleared for takeoff.

ALDRIN: Roger, understand. We're number one on the runway.

MC: Roger. Eagle, Houston. You're looking good to us.

ALDRIN: Nine, eight, seven, six, five, start stage engine on ascent, proceed. Beautiful. Very smooth. Very quiet ride. There's that one crater down there.

MC: Eagle, Houston. One minute and you're looking good.

ALDRIN: Little bit of a slow wallowing back and forth. Not very much thruster activity.

MC: Roger. Mighty fine.

ALDRIN: And it's a thousand, 170 up. Beautiful. Fourteen thousand.

ARMSTRONG: I'm going right down U.S. 1.

MC: Roger! Eagle Houston, four minutes. You're going right down the track. Everything's great.

ALDRIN: There's Ritter name of a crater out there.

See there it is, right there! Say, that's impressive looking, isn't it? Speed to go before orbit . . . 800 to go, 700 to go . . . pressure holding good . . . 350 to go . . . Stand by on the engine are . . . 90 . . . Okay . . . 50 . . . Shutdown. Okay, Houston, we show 47.2 by 9.5 describing the orbital altitudes in nautical miles.

MC: Roger. 47.2 by 9.5.

ARMSTRONG: AGS Aboard Guidance System says 9.5 by 46.6

Later:

ARMSTRONG: Houston, the Eagle is back in orbit, having left Tranquility Base, and leaving behind a replica from our Apollo 11 patch with an olive branch.

MC: Eagle, Houston, Roger. We copy. The whole world is proud of you.

This is the year of the moon walk! With the accomplishment of this feat, the moon has taken on a new dimension. The old concept symbolizes superstition and romance, with sayings that the moon is made of green cheese and that there is a man in the moon. But today the moon embraces not only its old mysticism but also the impressions of a new era -- man's foot prints.

The current interest in both astrology and in the influence of the zodiac emphasizes superstitions from the past. However, the moon walk on July 20, 1969, dispelled many of our old romantic notions and opened the door to scientific frontiers in space.

This 1970 issue is dedicated to the astronauts and all the people who contributed to the space age and made it possible to walk among the stars.

Through their efforts, the world has increased its understanding of the heavens. From the first steps he took on the moon, mankind will endure, forever seeking new horizons.

TO THE STUDENTS OF THE

H. L. HENDRICKS
SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

A MESSAGE FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT

"One small step for man, a giant leap for mankind." These are the words of Neil Armstrong, as on July 20, 1969, he took man's first step onto the moon. Thus was ushered in a new, exciting space era. During your lifetime the real meaning of this simple but prophetic comment of Commander Armstrong should become revealed in its real significance.

The people of the United States have always been in the forefront of exploration and progress. The material wealth of the United States has not been handed to us on a silver tray, nor has it been spawned by accident or chance. It is simply the natural inquisitiveness of Americans coupled with initiative, drive, and faith which has placed us in world prominence in the Space Age. We look backward and we can see this repeated again and again -- the Atomic Age, progress in agriculture, the Industrial Revolution, technological advancement, and so on, ad infinitum.

Young people of junior high age will live the majority of their lifetimes in the Space Age which is certain to be one of the most exciting and rapidly changing times in world history. It is my hope that you will see permanently established on the planet earth an idea expressed by President Nixon when he talked by telephone from his White House office to the astronauts on the moon, "Because of what you have done the heavens have become a part of man's world . . . For one priceless moment in the whole history of man all of the people on this earth are truly one."

CALVIN A. BOSSLER, PRINCIPAL

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Space Exploration and Man's Walk on the Moon could well be the most outstanding contribution of Man in the fabulous decade of the 60's. It is significant, therefore, that your Monarch Memories' staff has selected this as the theme for the 1969-1970 Yearbook. In years to come, as you look back to this year, you will have this booklet and record to refresh your memory of these most exciting events. It will also serve to recall the many friendships and activities you have experienced in junior high school.

The staff of the Monarch Memories has worked long and hard to develop this issue and I offer my congratulations to them and to their adviser for a most splendid publication.
